Participant of the Week

This week's winner is Luke Beavis! It hasn't taken long for Luke to make an impact on our music group. His joyful charisma and positive attitude, alongside his amazing musical talent that shocked the whole group, there was no other choice this week. Congratulations Luke!

Shannon's Podium

- Somehow, the boss man has worked his way onto the podium even though he missed two programs! Anyways, 2nd and 1st speak for themselves, with Hendo always being here to support the crew, and Zac stepping up in Lukes absence and taking charge. All jokes aside, Luke puts a lot of work in for the crew and deserves his spot.

Worker of the Week

This week's worker of the week is Zac Darks! He was asked to step up this week in Luke's absence, and he went above and beyond to deliver for everyone. He ensured the group ran smoothly and everyone enjoyed themselves. Zac also has great input in our radio and content programs, and we are very thankful!
